Hau Mitakiyapi,

Just a quick note to say great job on working together to make this Online Transition somewhat bearable. It is still difficult, but we can say we are doing what we can to help the students succeed. I knew this wasn't going to be easy and I know we still haven't gotten there, but we're working at it...together. It takes a village...

Some of you staff have been inquiring about whether we have to come back to work on April 7. I wish we could! However, you are to remain doing as we have been doing until further notice. The CARE Act that has passed and signed by the President triggered a lot of things that includes funding agencies for TCU's which have indicated we will continue to be funded during these trying times. What this means is SWC will remain on administrative leave and/or essential duty until this Thing is done or they (BIE, DOE, NSF, USDA, to name a few) tell us differently.

Many thanks to all departments for your persistence and patience.

Toksta!
